In the control of the control of the muscles waters are excelled by noching over known to the human race. In the control of the property is the control of the muscles are control of the property of the highest order. Many severe cases of these diseases, which had resisted the most skillful medical treatment, and in which other mineral waters of high repute had been used in vain, have been entirely cured here. Of the vast number now suffering with these maladies, there are comparatively very few who would not be perfectly restored, or greatly relieved, by the use of these waters. This place is about 450 miles from New York. The journey from that city requires only forty-eight hours, and is made almost entirely by daylight. The direct route is via Baltimore, Mc. Washington, D. C., and Alexandria and Staunton, Va. The whole distance is by railroad, except twenty-five miles by stage coaches. These springs are situated in a valley, in an elevated mountain region. The scenery around is wild, romanic and beautiful, and the climate in summer delightful, salubrious and invigorating. The hotel accommodations are good and comfortable, and a fine band of music will be in atendance throughout the season. To those who may desire further information, and who will furnish me with their advention of the springs, with cases of cure. Ac. **
